

ROMANS

The elder brother rejects the father's feast

Session Number: 21 | Week: 3 | Day: 6

Bible Passage

Romans 10: 1-10

Introduction

In this session, chap 10: 1-10, we focus on today's Isreal church, including the Gentile church. God's servants face two challenges in the Father's service: those who know what needs to be done but are not willing, and secondly, those who have the zeal to do it but without knowledge. The Israel brother suffers from the spirit of self-righteousness at his father's table. He has zeal but not according to the understanding of right living. The father has accepted both sons based on believing that salvation is by grace not by works. Believing in the heart and confessing with your mouth. The prodigal son believed and confessed, and so he was accepted by the father

Audio Summary

Romans 10:1-10

- Context:
 - Israelites (firstborn, Luke 15) shift from past privilege (Romans 9) to present self-righteousness; Romans 10 contrasts their zeal with faith.
 - Paul mourns Jews' salvation, stuck in law-based effort, not grace.
- Misguided Zeal (Romans 10:1-3):
 - Paul prays for Israel's salvation (v. 1); their zeal for God lacks knowledge of His righteousness, clinging to law over faith (v. 2-3).
 - Self-righteousness—refusing grace—mirrors the firstborn's rejection of the prodigal's welcome.
- Christ Fulfills the Law (Romans 10:4):
 - Christ ends law's purpose as the path to righteousness; faith in Him justifies all believers (v. 4).
 - Law points to sin but can't save—Jesus completes it, offering grace.
- Faith vs. Law (Romans 10:5-10):
 - Law's way demands perfect obedience, impossible (v. 5, Leviticus 18:5); faith's way—believing Jesus died and rose, confessing Him as Lord—saves (v. 6-10).
 - Prodigal walked faith's path (belief in father's grace); Jews stick to law, missing Jesus' fulfillment.
- Application:
 - Abandon self-righteous effort; embrace faith in Christ's finished work—Jews and Gentiles share the table by grace, not works.
