Discerning God's Wisdom (1 Corinthians 2:1-9)

- Paul's Approach: Paul preached to the Corinthians without human eloquence or wisdom, despite personal weakness and fear, focusing solely on Jesus Christ and Him crucified.
- Reliance on the Spirit: His preaching relied on the Spirit's power, not persuasive words, to ensure the Corinthians' faith rested on God's power, not human wisdom.
- Discerning Wisdom: Believers must discern between three spirits—God's Spirit, human spirit, and the spirit of the world—to apply knowledge correctly, seeking wisdom from God, not self or the world.
- God's Wisdom: Paul spoke a message of wisdom among the mature, not the wisdom of this age's rulers, which is fleeting, but God's hidden, eternal wisdom destined for believers' glory.
- Hidden Mystery: God's wisdom, a mystery unknown to worldly rulers (who crucified Christ), is revealed to believers, surpassing human understanding and offering divine glory.
- Purpose: By preaching with the Spirit's power and focusing on God's wisdom, Paul ensures the church's faith is rooted in Christ, avoiding worldly influences that cause division.

Application

- Preach and live by the Spirit's power, focus on Christ crucified, discern God's wisdom over human or worldly wisdom, and apply knowledge to strengthen faith and unity.
