

THE GOSPEL OF MATTHEW

The Teachings of the King: Making Righteous Choices and Judgements

Session Number: 8 | Week: 2 | Day: 1

Bible Passage

Matthew 7:1-29

Introduction

Matthew chapters 5-7 shows how Christ's disciples (students) could inherit the Kingdom of God (the rule of God on earth, dominion on earth) by changing their minds (repentance). For repentance to occur, Jesus must educate the minds of His students in knowing God and His will so that they can serve and worship God without fear. Jesus is the King of kings, educating His kings for service. In this session, we explore one area in which King Jesus educated His disciples on making God-honouring choices and judgments to maximise their rule on earth. This session introduces us to emotional intelligence, focusing first on internal greatness and control, followed by external greatness. In this section, Jesus gave His students the Kingdom principles of making God-honouring choices and judgments for themselves and others as students of the King, to help them inherit the Kingdom of God (dominion of God, rule of God on earth).

Session Objectives

By the end of this session, you will have:

- Learned the principles of making the right judgment by avoiding external standards, not seeking wisdom from the world (dogs and swine), asking for wisdom from God, the righteous Judge, using the Golden Rule, and comparing two alternatives or options.
- Appreciated the importance of spiritual discernment when applying the truth of the Kingdom to the world.
- Reflected on the obstacles we face when making God-honouring judgments and considered how to overcome these obstacles.

- How do we speak the truth in love about disputed issues within us? (Ephesians 4:14-15)
- What did Jesus reveal about sharing our faith with hostile cultures? (Matthew 7:6) What does this verse say about sharing the gospel with the world? (Luke 23:8-9) When should you share your faith with the world? (1 Peter 3:15)
- Read Matthew 7:7-11. What do these verses reveal about asking for wisdom from God to settle disputes or any other matters?
- What rule should guide us in judging others? (Matthew 7:12)
- Read Matthew 7:13-29. What lessons do you learn about making decisions or judgments by comparing two alternatives or options?
Two ways with two ends,
Two trees with two fruits,
Two servants of Jesus with two ends, and
Two builders with two different results.
