

THE GOSPEL OF MATTHEW

Jesus' Death and Burial: Setting Every Captive Free

Session Number: 46 | Week: 7 | Day: 4

Bible Passage

Matthew 27:51-66

Introduction

In a world where many reject Christ due to ignorance of His death, this session from Matthew 27:51-66 is crucial for empowering the disciples of Jesus Christ today in defending their faith (apologetics). By gaining a deep understanding of the death of Jesus and the overwhelming evidence supporting it, believers can confidently address the doubts and criticisms prevalent in today's world. This passage presents over six eyewitness accounts and key events that affirm the reality of Christ's death and burial, including testimonies from the resurrected saints, the centurion, the women, Joseph of Arimathea, Pilate, the chief priests, Pharisees, and the guards. Study this session carefully to equip yourself with these five unique pieces of evidence—such as the tearing of the temple veil, the earthquake, the splitting of rocks, and the raising of saints—so that you can confidently share and defend these truths with others.

Session Objectives

By the end of this session, you will have:

- Learned how to present compelling evidence of Jesus Christ's death to doubters by identifying at least five eyewitnesses and their testimonies.
- Gained confidence in proclaiming the death and burial of Jesus by referencing the accounts of eyewitnesses to these events.
